THE BOUNDARIES OF OUR BLACKNESS: AN OPEN FORUM DISCUSSION ON BLACKNESS AND HOOD CULTURE
October 3, 8:00 PM

Solely created for the purpose of generating a discussion, this event is our hope of giving space for students’ voices to come together and share their experiences and understandings of being people of color - we tend to generate better understandings of each other when we learn about what experiences make us who we are. Led by a panel of members of different Greek organizations among several councils (to assist in leading our discussion), this event is a safe space to be heard, to be educated by your peers and to educate them as well. Sponsored by Lambda Theta Alpha, Latin Sorority, Inc.
