NATIVE HERITAGE MONTH 2018

1. Native Heritage Month Kickoff
   Schine Atrium Info Table 11am – 2pm
   Opening Thanksgiving Address – Jabberwocky Café 12pm
   Join us for the Thanksgiving Address to begin Native Heritage Month followed by a reception. Sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs and Indigenous Students at Syracuse.

5. Professor Michael Oberg, Discussion on the Treaty of Canandaigua
   443 Dineen Hall – 2:30pm
   The Native American Law Students Association (NALSA) welcomes distinguished professor Michael Oberg (SUNY Geneseo, Department of History) to the Syracuse University College of Law to speak about the history of the Canandaigua Treaty. Contact NALSA president, Laura Daniels @ldanie011@syr.edu for more info.

10. Native Heritage Month Film Festival
    Shemin Auditorium, Shaffer Art Building – 2.5pm
    Films by Syracuse University Alumni Caleb Abrams (Class of ‘18), Terry Jones (Class of ’16), and Michelle Schenandoah (Class of ‘18). Sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs and Indigenous Students at Syracuse.

11. Canandaigua Treaty Day Celebration
    Canandaigua, New York 11am – 8:30 pm
    Info @www.ganondagan.org/Events-Programs/Canandaigua-Treaty-Event

14. Guest Speaker Lori Quigley, Ph.D.
    Lecture and Discussion, Thomas Indian Residential School
    121 Shaffer Art Building 6-8pm
    Lori Quigley (Seneca Nation, Wolf Clan) is the Vice President for Academic Affairs at Medaille College, Buffalo, NY. She is a new member of the Board of Directors of the National Indian Education Association. Sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs and Indigenous Students at Syracuse.

15. Rock Your Mocs!
    We as Indigenous people wear our moccasins on November 15th, standing together worldwide, while recognizing our Tribal individuality. Event celebrated for a week to allow for more moc wearing opportunities.

27. Guest Speaker Kent Blansett
    Lecture and Discussion, “Richard Oakes, Alcatraz, and the American Indian Movement”
    228B Schine Student Center 4-5:30pm
    Blansett is a leading authority on the life of the Akwesasne Mohawk activist Richard Oakes (1942-1972). His lecture corresponds with the opening of an exhibition that he has curated about Oakes and the American Indian Movement at the Skanoth Center on Onondaga Lake Parkway. This event is co-sponsored by Native American and Indigenous Studies, Native Student Program in the Office of Multicultural Affairs, Indigenous Students at Syracuse and the Skanoth Great Law of Peace Center.

December 1st – Native Heritage Month Closing Ceremony
Special Award Presentation & Social Dance
The Skybar, 151 Farm Acre Road on South Campus 5-8pm

OFF CAMPUS EVENTS
Skánoth Great Law of Peace Center, www.skanonhcenter.org
November 17 - Haendenosauiee Arts and Craft Fair
10am-4pm 6680 Onondaga Lake Pkwy, Liverpool, NY
This event is held indoors and is free and open to the public.

5:30-7:30pm 6680 Onondaga Lake Pkwy, Liverpool, NY
Exhibit Opening Reception & Book Signing

November 29 – Dan Longboat, Discussion on Creation and Original Instructions
7:00-8:30pm 6680 Onondaga Lake Pkwy, Liverpool, NY

Eric Gansworth, Reading and Q&A
November 20
9:30am (3rd period) - Lafayette High School Auditorium
1pm - Onondaga Nation School during Harvest Dinner
Eric Gansworth (Onondaga, Eel Clan) is a Haendenoasuiee novelist, poet and visual artist, as well as a professor of English at Canisius College in Buffalo, New York.

SUNY ESF, Native Heritage Month
November 29 – Remembrance Day for Lost Species
November 30 – “Denying Access: No DAPL to No NAPL” with Filmmaker Dr. Jason Corwin
Contact Neil Patterson at nvpatter@esf.edu for more info on ESF events!