Native Heritage Month 2018

1. Native Heritage Month Kickoff
Schine Atrium Info Table 11am – 2pm
Opening Thanksgiving Address – Jabberwocky Café 12pm
Join us for the Thanksgiving Address to begin Native Heritage Month followed by a reception. Sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs and Indigenous Students at Syracuse.

5. Professor Michael Oberg, Discussion on the Treaty of Canandaigua
443 Dineen Hall - 2:30pm
The Native American Law Students Association (N ALSA) welcomes distinguished professor Michael Oberg (SUNY Geneseo, Department of History) to the Syracuse University College of Law to speak about the history of the Canan- daigua Treaty. Contact N ALSA president, Laura Daniels @ ldanieO1@sy.edu for more info.

10. Native Heritage Month Film Festival
Shemin Auditorium, Shaffer Art Building - 2-5pm
Films by Syracuse University Alumni Caleb Abrams (Class of ’18), Terry Jones (Class of ’16), and Michelle Schenandoah (Class of ’18). Sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs and Indigenous Students at Syracuse.

13. Canandaigua Treaty Day Celebration
Canandaigua, New York 11am – 8:30pm
Info @ www.canonagen.org/Events-Programs/CanandaiguaTreaty-Event

14. Guest Speaker Jolene Rickard, Ph.D.
“What is the thinking? Indigenous Methodologies and Community Perspectives
Kittredge Auditorium, HBC - 6-8pm
Jolene Rickard is the Director of the American Indian and Indigenous Studies Program and Associate Professor in the Department of History, Art and Visual Studies and Art Department at Cornell University. Jolene is a member of the Tuscarora Nation, Turtle Clan. Sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs and Indigenous Students at Syracuse.

16. Guest Speaker Lori Quigley, Ph.D.
Lecture and Discussion, Thomas Indian Residential School
121 Shaffer Art Building - 6-8pm
Lori Quigley (Geneca Nation, Wolf Clan) is the Vice President for Academic Affairs at Medaille College, Buffalo, NY. She is a new member of the Board of Directors of the National Indian Education Association. Sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs and Indigenous Students at Syracuse.

15. Rock Your Mocs!
We are Indigenous people wear our moccasins on November 15th, standing together worldwide, while recognizing our Tribal individuality. Event celebrated for a week to allow for more moc wearing opportunities.

December 1st - Native Heritage Month Closing Ceremony
Special Award Presentation & Social Dance
The Skybarn, 151 Farm Acre Road on South Campus 5-8pm

OFF CAMPUS EVENTS
Skaneateles Great Law of Peace Center Events, www.skarnonhcenter.org
November 17 - Haudenosaunee Arts and Craft Fair
10am-4pm 6680 Onondaga Lake Pkwy, Liverpool, NY
This event is held indoors and is free and open to the public.

5:30-7:30pm 6680 Onondaga Lake Pkwy, Liverpool, NY
Exhibit Opening Reception & Book Signing

November 29 - Dan Longboat, Discussion on Creation and Original Instructions
7:00-8:30pm 6680 Onondaga Lake Pkwy, Liverpool, NY

Eric Gansworth, Reading and Q&A
November 20
9:30am (3rd period) - Lafayette High School Auditorium
1pm ONS during Harvest Dinner
Eric Gansworth (Onondaga, Eel Clan) is a Haudenosaunee novelist, poet and visual artist, as well as a professor of English at Canisius College in Buffalo, New York.

SUNY ESF, Native Heritage Month Events
November 29 - Remembrance Day for Lost Species
November 28 - “Onondaga Land Rights: Settler Agreements in Central New York.”
November 30 - “Denying Access: No DAPL to No NAPL” with Filmmaker Dr. Jason Corwin
Contact Neil Patterson at nvpatte@esf.edu for more info on ESF events!