Join us for a discussion of “We Gon’ Be Alright: Notes on Race and Resegregation” by Jeff Chang. Cedric Bolton and Huey Hsiao, both from the Office of Multicultural Affairs, will lead the discussion. Food will be provided. Email huhsiao@syr.edu for a copy of the book.

PATING THE WAY ALUMNI PANEL
Friday, April 14, 7 - 8:30 p.m., Hall of Languages 509
Join us for an alumni and mentorship discussion with alumni, as they recount their college and career experiences and guide students toward success. The panel includes: Victoria Chan (BS '16, Sciences '19), Ben Fang (Menorah '15), Jini Hong (Menorah '19), and Sharon Lee (School '14, School '15). Dr. Yingyi Ma, associate professor of sociology and director of Asian-American Studies, will moderate the panel. Sponsored by Asian-American Studies, Asian Student on Americas, Lambda Phi Epsilon, and Office Multicultural Affairs, and Office of Programs/Development.

THRIVE TOGETHER FAIR
Saturday, April 15, 5:30 - 9:30 p.m., Manley Field House
Join us as we stand together with the City of Syracuse to support Interfaith Works and their work for refugees and immigrants of the community. The Thrive Together Fair celebrates culture, courage and community through traditional performances and engaging activities from student organizations and off-campus community groups. All proceeds will go to Interfaith Works. Sponsored by the Student Association.

19TH ANNUAL ASIA NIGHT PRESENTS MR. ASIA 2017
Saturday, April 1, 7 - 10 p.m., Schine Underground
Come celebrate Korean culture and the talent within the Korean American community! This event has been sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs, Kappa Phi Lambda, Global China Connection, Japanese Student Association, and Korean American Student Association. Questions? Contact Amanda Chou at aychou@syr.edu.

BEYOND SKIN DEEP
Tuesday, April 25, 7 - 8:30 p.m., Hall of Languages 107
Join us for a lively and insightful discussion with alumni, as they recount their college and career experiences and guide students toward success. The panel includes: Victoria Chan (BS '16, Sciences '19), Ben Fang (Menorah '15), Jane Hong (Newhouse '16), and Sharon Lee (School '14, School '15). Dr. Yingyi Ma, associate professor of sociology and director of Asian-American Studies, will moderate the panel. Sponsored by Asian-American Studies, Asian Student on Americas, Lambda Phi Epsilon, and Office Multicultural Affairs, and Office of Programs/Development.

SASE TALENT SHOW
Tuesday, April 11, 6 - 9 p.m., Jabberwocky Cafe
Show off your talents at the SASE Talent Show! Dazzle your friends with amazing feats and spectacular tricks. You can be a dancer, singer, magician, and everything in between! Sponsored by the Department of Student Activities.

THRIVE TOGETHER FAIR
Saturday, April 15, 5:30 - 9:30 p.m., Manley Field House
Join us as we stand together with the City of Syracuse to support Interfaith Works and their work for refugees and immigrants of the community. The Thrive Together Fair celebrates culture, courage and community through traditional performances and engaging activities from student organizations and off-campus community groups. All proceeds will go to Interfaith Works. Sponsored by the Student Association.

19TH ANNUAL ASIA NIGHT PRESENTS MR. ASIA 2017
Saturday, April 1, 7 - 10 p.m., Schine Underground
Come celebrate Korean culture and the talent within the Korean American community! This event has been sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs, Kappa Phi Lambda, Global China Connection, Japanese Student Association, and Korean American Student Association. Questions? Contact Amanda Chou at aychou@syr.edu.