POWER TO THE PEOPLE

A TWO-DAY COMMEMORATION FOR THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF REV. DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.'S ASSASSINATION

DAY 1: SUNDAY, APRIL 15

6-7 P.M. | FREE SOULTALK DINNER | NOBLE ROOM | HENDRICKS CHAPEL

Come to the Noble Room in Hendricks Chapel for a free dinner and casual small-group conversations about the legacy and influence of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and the Freedom Rights Movement. American Sign Language (ASL) interpretation will be provided.

7-8 P.M. | HENDRICKS CHAPEL DEAN'S CONVOCATION: SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY AT THE CROSSROADS | MAIN CHAPEL | HENDRICKS CHAPEL

All are invited for the Dean's Convocation, a weekly gathering at 7 p.m. on Sundays in Hendricks Chapel, intended to be a place for all people, featuring music and reflection from a diversity of religious, spiritual, and philosophical perspectives. Join Dr. Herb Ruffin, Dr. Biko Mandela Gray, and Sadia Ahmed '21 for a conversation about moving forward the legacy of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and the Freedom Rights Movement at Syracuse University. ASL interpretation will be provided.

8-8:30 P.M. | CANDLELIGHT VIGIL | HENDRICKS CHAPEL STEPS

Come to the steps of Hendricks Chapel to honor the legacy of the Freedom Rights Movement and show solidarity as we work toward a more just world. Dr. Keith Alford, Terra Peckskamp and Jalen Nash '20 will share brief reflections.

DAY 2: MONDAY, APRIL 16

8:30 A.M. TO 6:30 P.M. | MLK LIBRARY TOURS AND DISPLAYS | 231 SIMS HALL

Visit the MLK Library on Monday, April 16 to explore the library and offerings within it, including a letter from Dr. King. MLK's "I've Been to the Mountaintop" speech will play throughout the day, along with other speeches available to access, with a space of reflection for visitors. Timelines of the Civil Rights Movement and MLK's work will be available for visitors to have.
