DENICE FROHMAN

Tuesday, Oct. 15, 2019
7:00 - 8:30 PM
Maxwell Auditorium

Queer, Puerto Rican, Jewish award-winning poet and activist Denice Frohman will perform her spoken word poetry that explores the intersections of race, gender, sexuality, language, subverting traditional notions of power, and celebrating the diverse parts of being queer and Latinx. Performance followed by Q&A.

The name of the LGBTQ+ History Month’s keynote honors alumni Jordan Potash ’98, who, during his undergrad, wrote the original proposal and earned campus-wide support to establish and create the LGBT Resource Center at Syracuse University.

American Sign Language (ASL) interpretation and Communication Access Real-time Translation (CART) will be provided for this event. For more information or to request additional accommodations, please contact the LGBT Resource Center at lgbt@syr.edu or (315) 443-3983
